

(Match report prepared by Jeff Swartz)

The 1st 100-Yard Airgun Benchrest match of 2022 was held at Fairfield Sportsmen's Association on Saturday, April 30.

The day started off with steady 9-10 mph winds and with the threat of rain. Fortunately, the only rain we got was a short 5-10 minute burst between rounds and the winds seemed to calm down as the day went on. The day was definitely windier than normal and scores were all over the board with most increasing round to round and a few others dropping. Earlier rounds seemed to be stronger but consistent winds while later rounds were milder but less predictable at times.

We had 11 shooters, all but one of which shot .30 caliber and the other shot a .25. Everyone from top to bottom shot solid scores and our two new shooters came prepared and really impressed everyone. At the end of 3 rounds Jeff Swartz and Tom Cox were tied with a score of 658 and also tied with 6X's. We planned to shoot a 4th "Fun Card" where the top score would win a Hawke hat. So, we used that card as a tie breaker for first place where Jeff shot a 220 to Tom's 219 and Jeff was given 1st place. But, the story doesn't end there. Tom took his targets home and later discovered that his round 1 X-total was not correct. It was added up as 2X when in fact the card showed 3X, so Tom Cox is the rightful and deserving winner of the match with 658 7X. Jeff Swartz finished in second with 658 6X, and new shooter Rob Moore finished with in third with 655 8X. The high score of the "Fun Card" and the winner of the Hawke hat was Robert Steele who shot a 228. While Robert finished just out of the top 3 spots, his 228 was the highest single card of the day and his 3 round total of 9X was the most X's of the day.
